Scouts Want Adults Trained

ARE YOU:

SO, WHAT DOES IT TAKE TO BE A “TRAINED” LEADER? JUST TWO HOURS ONLINE AT OLC.Scouting.org PLUS A FUN CLASSROOM SESSION...

YOUTH PROTECTION TRAINING. (*) (###)

Youth Protection training a.k.a. YPT is the first step for all new and is required for all leaders. At all times, youth safety is the number one priority. At the same time, adults need to know the rules for keeping themselves safe, too. Comprehensive Youth Protection training teaches all the do’s and don’ts of working with youth.

FAST START TRAINING.(*)

Fast Start training is the second step for all new leaders and should be taken immediately after they register and before they meet with any youth members. New cub scout leaders choose the Fast Start they need to take: Den Leader, Cubmaster, or Pack Committee.

THIS IS SCOUTING.(*)

This Is Scouting is a new online training session. It picks up when Fast Start leaves off with six modules of training: The Mission of Scouting, Programs for All ages, Scouting Is Fun, Scouting in the Community, Keeping Our Youth Safe, and Scouting’s Legacy.

POSITION SPECIFIC TRAINING. (###)

Leader position specific training is based on the leader’s position. These courses are taught by informed trainers who know how to engage groups and make learning fun. These courses are offered by the district or council as group training, or may be done as small groups or by personal coaching.

When your pack has an overnight campout, at least one of the leaders in charge must have completed Basic Adult Leader Outdoor Orientation (BALOO) training. BALOO training includes an introduction to outdoor camping skills as well as important BSA rules and policies to be followed on any Cub Scout campout. Next BALOO course is September 11th and requires registration. Email Mike Hudson for more details. mjudson@charter.net
