A. THE FLAG AND SCOUTING (Santa Clara County Council)

The flag of the United States is a symbol of our country and all it represents. One of the many great things our flag represents is Scouting. Let's look at the flag from our Scouting viewpoint.

The white stripes are all Scouts with their clean, fresh desire to learn, be with the best of others, and still stand out in their own individuality.

The red stripes can represent the parents, who have given their sons the blood of inheritance, the closeness of constant support, the brilliance of visible good example and distinction of encouraging self-reliance.

The blue field represents the Scouting organization with its broad principles and high ideals bound together with sound practices serving a teaching and supporting background.

The white stars are Scout leaders - Scoutmasters, Cubmasters, Den Leaders, Patrol Dads, and Den Chiefs. All those who assume the color and interest of the Cub Scouts and Boy Scouts, guide them in self-leadership, brighten the way of their growth, and illuminate the goals to constructive manhood, that basic ingredient that supports our country and earns our Flag its most distinctive honor -RESPECT.

Song: Baby Bumble Bee

Lyrics:

(cup hands carrying bee)

I caught myself a baby bumble bee
Won't my leader be so proud of me?
I caught myself a baby bumble bee...
Ouch! It stung me!

(squish hands together)

I'm squashing up my baby bumble bee
Won't my leader be so proud of me?
I'm squashing up my baby bumble bee...
Ew! What a mess!

(put hand in front of mouth like licking)

I'm licking up my baby bumble bee
Won't my leader be so proud of me?
I'm licking up my baby bumble bee...
Ugh! I feel sick!

(hold stomach and bend over)

I'm barfing up my baby bumble bee
Won't my leader be so proud of me?
I'm barfing up my baby bumble bee...
Oh! Another mess!

(pretend mopping, then stand tall and proud)

I'm mopping up my baby bumble bee

Won't my leader be so proud of me?

I'm mopping up my baby bumble bee...

Hey, leader, aren't you proud of me?

I found at camp a baby bumble bee

(clap loud)I got it before it got me!

Scoutmaster Minute - Unsayng your words

Notes:

Think about the impact of your words before you say them. You cannot take back something you've said.

Script:

Once there were two Indian boys that were very good friends. They explored, fished, and hunted together. They were both great athletes and well-liked by all in their tribe.

In their village there was also a young girl that they both began to like and compete for. One of the boys, out of jealousy, told the girl that the other boy had done something very bad which would disgrace him and his family. This was completely untrue.

Afterwards, the boy felt ashamed of what he had done. He told the girl that he had lied and he apologized to his friend for what he had said.

But, as he walked around the village, he could here others repeating the false words he had spoken about his friend. Very troubled by this, he went to the tribal medicine man for advice.

'How can I undo this terrible thing I have done?', he asked.

The wise man told him, 'Shoot 3 ducks and 3 geese. Pull off all their feathers and put them in a leather bag. Bring me the bag and the birds.'

The boy did this. He gave the birds to the wise man and the wise man said, 'Now, take the bag of feathers to the top of the great mountain, open it, and shake out all the feathers. Then, return here.'

The boy climbed the mountain, released all the feathers into the wind, and returned to the wise man.

The wise man said, 'Now, go back up the mountain and pick up every single feather you released and put them back in your bag.'

The boy replied, 'But, that is not possible. The feathers have blown far away. I can never recover all of them.'

The wise man said, 'So it is with your words.'

Think about the impact of your words before you say them. You cannot take back something you've said.
